[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

DOMESTIC.

Disaster in a Mine.

WILKESBARR, December 18th.—Water in the Susquehanna river at Nanticoke broke through the workings of No. 1 stope of the Susquehanna Mining Company this morning, and at noon there was about six feet of water in the stope. The alarm was sent through the workings when the danger was apparent, and all the men except six Hungarians, who are believed to be drowned, hurried to the mouth and were rescued.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

WILKESBARR, December 18th.—Accounts from Nanticoke are conflicting. Advice received this afternoon were to the effect that thirty-nine men employed on rock work in the No. 1 stope were imprisoned in the upper level by the rapid rising of the water. Several miners entered the stope at 3 o'clock with boats, intending to use every means to reach them.

A dispatch received here at 6 o'clock this evening from Nanticoke stated that sixty-one of the miners were unaccounted for, and it was supposed that they were drowned.

Later advice state that all the men are reported to be out of the mines except twenty-four. The fate of these is not yet known.

MORE SERIOUS THAN AT FIRST SUPPOSED.

WILKESBARR, December 18th.—The disaster at Nanticoke was more serious than at first supposed. The theory that the water broke through the bed of the river has been dispelled by the fact that the place whence the water came is over 4,000 feet from the Susquehanna. It flowed from a pool on the surface. It followed the seam, ran into the gangway, and then descended to the lower working of No. 1 stope. When the water was discovered making its way into the stope, there were nearly 1,000 men and boys at work on the various openings, but at the particular spot where it first appeared there were not over thirty persons.

It is reported that there are about thirty men, who are shut in by the water and rubbish that have accumulated in the west gangway in the second lift of the Ross seam. It is impossible to say what their fate will be. The rescuing party is now pushing the face of the chambers in that part of the gangway, with hopes of reaching them some time during the night. The officials say there is no hope of their suffocating, as they will get plenty of air from the faces of the chambers that are not clogged. The pumps were put into operation to-day. They have capacity of removing 2,000 gallons of water per minute, and it is expected that the mine will be clear by Monday next. Old miners are of the opinion that the men who are shut up will be rescued alive.

At 10 o'clock this evening the company were making every possible effort to reach the imprisoned men. Additions to the rescuing party are being rapidly put up. Another force of men has been sent down the air shaft, who will endeavor to cut through to the spot where the imprisoned men are supposed to be. This work will be kept up night and day until the fate of the men is known.

PROGRESS OF THE RESCUING PARTY.

WILKESBARR, December 18th.—Information received here at 11:30 from Nanticoke says the water has subsided, and a large force of men are at work removing the quicksand that blocks the gangway. The rescuing party are now within forty feet of the men, and there are strong hopes of reaching them by morning. The damage to the mine will be extensive, and it will be some weeks before the work is resumed.

The California Delegation and the Navy Yard.

WASHINGTON, December 18th.—The members of the California delegation, including Governor Stanford, except Representative Felton, called on the Secretary of the Navy this morning, and had a very pleasant conversation in regard to the navy yard at Mare Island. The representative Felton, called on the Secretary of the Navy this morning, and had a very pleasant conversation in regard to the navy yard at Mare Island.

Chinese Immigration Funds—Report of Special Agent Spaulding.

WASHINGTON, December 18th.—The report of special Agent Spaulding, who was sent to San Francisco by the Treasury Department in regard to the immigration of Chinese under the Restriction Act approved May 6, 1882, has just been received at the Treasury Department. It is a lengthy report, and it alleges that the methods first adopted in carrying out the provisions of the Act, and in the completeness with which they were performed, but says that a number of mistakes were made, which could not be avoided, for it was found that a perfect system could be formulated at once. He says the water has subsided, and a large force of men are at work removing the quicksand that blocks the gangway.

Trouble with Indians Apprehended.

MISSOULA (Mont.), December 18th.—In a quarrel which occurred between two white men, V. H. Coomes and Mr. Baden, and two Indians at Orlean, on the flat head reservation, last night, one of the Indians was shot dead and the other wounded. The occurrence aroused all the Indians on the reservation, and serious trouble was apprehended. Troops were ordered to leave on a special train for Orlean from Missoula to-night, but later information indicated that the excitement had subsided, and the order was countermanded.

The Admission of Dakota.

PHILADELPHIA, December 18th.—The Times (Magnum) says of the admission of Dakota: "There is nothing startling in the action of the somewhat fresh pioneer State of Dakota. Michigan, California, Colorado and other Territories set up a dummy State Government before they had enabling Acts from Congress. The business of creating pocket commonwealths was so largely overdone in the cases of Oregon, Nevada and Colorado that Congress will likely be slow to repeat the folly. Oregon and Nevada, with more than half a generation of time to grow, have never got beyond a single Congressman."

The Question of Home Rule in Ireland.

DUBLIN, December 18th.—The Daily Express, devotes a leading article this morning to picturing the consequences which would result from home rule in Ireland. If the demands of the Parnellites are granted and

The Evening Post's Washington special says: "Indications favor a long partisan debate on Senator Butler's resolutions. A section of the committee on the Territories men interpose more obstacles to the bringing of a State into the Union than they did to the taking of a State out of it." The representative of the committee on the Territories men interpose more obstacles to the bringing of a State into the Union than they did to the taking of a State out of it.

The Woman Who Attempted to Kill O'Donovan Rossa.

MIDDLETOWN (N. Y.), December 18th.—Mrs. Yessie Dudley, who attempted to kill O'Donovan Rossa, is surely trying the patience of the authorities. She was confined to the Middletown Insane Asylum. Since she learned that her counsel was unable to have her released from the asylum, she has been determined to succeed. She has tried other ways to contract a cold by sitting in draughts or by open windows, in violent weather, with the avowed hope that it would bring on a fatal illness. She has tried other ways to shorten her life, but has been detected, and is under constant watch. She has had six epileptic fits. Would you kill O'Donovan Rossa if you were released? she was asked. "I might and I might not," she replied.

Crazed by Cocaine.

NEW YORK, December 18th.—William Morton, a wealthy man, for some years connected with the drug trade of this city, was a prisoner in the Police Court yesterday, charged with attempting to commit suicide in the upper level by the rapid rising of the water. Several miners entered the stope at 3 o'clock with boats, intending to use every means to reach them.

A dispatch received here at 6 o'clock this evening from Nanticoke stated that sixty-one of the miners were unaccounted for, and it was supposed that they were drowned.

Twenty-five Hundred Men Taken Out of Employment.

ELIZABETHTOWN (N. J.), December 18th.—The Singer sewing machine factory shut down to-day, and 2,500 employees were informed by police that they were suspended until further notice, because of the tax levy by the city. A public meeting of the employees has been called for to-day evening. The company owes $20,000 in taxes, and refuses to pay.

American Missionaries in Africa.

NEW YORK, December 18th.—The San says: Bishop William Taylor, who recently left Africa as missionary, has returned to Europe. At last accounts he was in Lisbon, and had had an audience with the King of Portugal. He returned to the slave trade in Angola and the Portuguese treatment of the natives. If he is able to incite the Portuguese to more vigorous, wise and humane policy in Africa he will be hailed as a great benefactor. In that large and interesting district of Africa the Bishop's missionaries have no occupied stations, the stations being from 300 miles along the direct route from the Loango coast to the center of the continent. Fresh reinforcements, to extend further inland, will soon be sent to Bishop Taylor.

An Act of Treason.

NEW YORK, December 18th.—The San says: Thomas W. Goodwyn, of Healdsburg, Sonoma county, California, has just written to the secretary of Engine Company No. 1, New York, asking for a certificate of former membership, so that he could take his place among the fire boys of Healdsburg. Goodwyn writes that he is 82 years of age, and has been a member of the engine for many years. He was elected a member in 1830, and in 1852 he was elected foreman of the engine. He was a member of the engine for many years, and was a member of the engine for many years.

The Hebrew Fair.

NEW YORK, December 18th.—The success of the great Hebrew fair now being held at the Metropolitan Hotel, for the benefit of the Hebrew Free School Association, has been unequalled, both from a financial and a patriotic standpoint. The fair has opened on Tuesday afternoon, and has been visited by many thousands who have come to spend their money with that liberality which is characteristic of the Jewish people. Most liberal donations have been made by all denominations to the fair.

The Question of Home Rule in Ireland.

DUBLIN, December 18th.—The Daily Express, devotes a leading article this morning to picturing the consequences which would result from home rule in Ireland. If the demands of the Parnellites are granted and any such scheme as home rule is attempted, as Gladstone has been credited contemplating, the Express declares civil war would not be unlikely to follow. There would be such a clashing of class interests, such a rivalry between friends of the old regime and partisans of the new order of things that civil strife could not be deferred, and in case such extremes were prevented, it is perfectly certain there would be endless friction between the Imperial Government and Ireland.

Loyalist Demonstration in Ireland.

DUBLIN, December 18th.—The city of Armagh, in the province of Ulster, was today the point of an immense Loyalist demonstration. The meeting adopted a resolution expressing the belief that a return to home-rule principles would be certain, sooner or later, to eventuate in civil war, and exhorting the Loyalist party to go to the utmost length in resisting the efforts of the home rule agitators. The resolution commended the Loyalists in Ireland to the sympathy of Protestants throughout the British Kingdom.

More than one of the speakers

boasted, with a degree of earnestness that aroused repeated cheers from the Loyalists, that the Loyalist party in Ireland was ready to meet whatever issue might be presented. "The Ulster Orangemen are ready to come to the front," one of the speakers said, "and when their services are wanted 60,000 men can readily be put into the field for active service in the defense of the Loyalist Government."

Home Rule in Ireland.

LONDON, December 18th.—The excitement throughout Great Britain on the subject of home rule for Ireland continues unabated. Newspapers of all shades of opinion and all classes of society are full of articles in regard to the subject. The late Premier, in replying to a telegram sent to-day, asking him to resign, said he had no intention of doing so, and that he would continue to serve the Government.

George J. Goschen, a prominent member of the Whig branch of the Liberal party, having been asked to-day for an opinion on the proposed home rule for Ireland, replied by telegram that he maintained his hitherto expressed convictions, and that he could not comment on any scheme until such time as the constitutional channel, what the wise men of Ireland are he will give them attentive consideration, but that he cannot gain this knowledge until the new Parliament meets.

Attempt to Blackmail the Prince of Wales.

LONDON, December 18th.—A sensation was caused here this morning by the arrest of a young man and woman at Kensington on a charge of extorting money from the Prince of Wales and threatening His Royal Highness in event of his not complying with their demand. The prisoners were taken before a magistrate, where a formal examination was held, resulting in their being remanded. It is expected that disclosure of a serious nature will be made when the case is again called.

The Balkan Trouble.

LONDON, December 18th.—A report has been received here that the Serbian troops have been withdrawn from the Widin district.

A Semi-Official Bulletin.

VIENNA, December 18th.—A semi-official bulletin issued at Nisch yesterday says: "Police cannot be assured of Bulgaria demands that Serbia shall evacuate the Widin district. King Milan considers this an unfair request. Serbia seeks an armistice pending for peace negotiations, but if they are not obtained she will continue the war to the last extremity. She will, however, wait until the enemy takes the offensive."

MONTENEGRO PREPARATIONS—ARMISTICE DESIRED.

LONDON, December 18th.—The Government of Montenegro, in view of the general military action on the borders of that country, has taken the precaution to equip 45,000 men, who will be held in readiness for immediate action in the event of an invasion of the country by a foreign army, in case the Government should decide upon more aggressive movements.

The Emperor of China to be Married.

PEKIN, December 18th.—It is currently reported and generally credited that the Emperor will be married in February next, 1886, and the young Emperor take possession of the Government.

Another Rebellion Imminent.

WINNEPEG, December 18th.—Archbishop Tache to-day said that unless the Dominion Government takes strict measures to allay the bitter feelings and discontent of the Indians in the Northwest, there will be another rebellion inside of a month. There is not a bit of use in guessing the fact that the Indians—not all of them, but a great many at any rate—are discontented, and he believes the Government, unless they wish to see much blood shed, to take time by the forelock, and adopt such measures as will keep the Indians in a peaceful and law-abiding condition.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE LAW SHOULD BE ENFORCED.—Last evening a boy 10 years of age was picked up on Tenth street in a beastly state of intoxication, and in that condition conveyed to the home of his mother where he was completely paralyzed with the effect of some kind of intoxicant that he was insensible to all his surroundings, and was a most pitiable sight to behold. His brother, a young man of excellent reputation, called at this office last evening, and said that as soon as he had slept off his drunken stupor they would ascertain where he obtained the liquor, and the law would be brought to bear, and the party or parties who sold or gave him the drink would be punished. That boys are allowed to enter beer saloons in this city and are sold beer over the counters, is a notorious fact, and which has often been called to the attention of the police, and yet no action has been taken. The law regarding the sale of liquor to minors should be enforced, severely punished, and their license revoked. The provision in the statute is very plain and reads as follows: "Every person who sells or gives to another under the age of sixteen years, to be by him drunk at the time as a beverage, any intoxicating drink, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding three months, or both."

COVER ITEMS.—The case of Jim Yuen, charged with an assault on a woman, which had been on trial in Department One of the Superior Court for several days, was given to the jury yesterday, and a verdict of assault with a deadly weapon rendered. He will be sentenced Monday. The case of Horace Stevens, charged with felony, in embezzling money while employed as the Surveyor-General's office, was taken up, and a motion to dismiss made by the defendant's attorney. This was concurred in by District Attorney Buckley. The case of the defendant's attorney, Judge Van Fleet, directed to hear from Surveyor-General Will, who was present, and that gentleman was put upon the stand. He stated that the money taken by the defendant had all been returned before the warrant of arrest was sworn out, but he (Will) had considered it to be his duty to have the matter brought into court. Under the present circumstances he doubted whether it was worth while to carry the matter to trial, as the State had not lost anything, and it was doubtful whether the trial would result in conviction. He had no personal feeling against the defendant, and would like to see the case disposed of. Judge Van Fleet announced that he would take the matter under advisement.

NEW INCORPORATIONS.—Articles were yesterday filed in the office of Secretary of State of the Truckee Steam Laundry Association, to carry on the laundry business and a bathing establishment without the employment of Chinese labor. # MILITARY NOTES.

SKIRMISH DRILL—Company E's Election—The Provisional Regiment.
The skirmish drill Thursday evening was not so fully entered into as was intended, on account of the election for Second Lieutenant of Company E; but a portion of the drill was carried out as well as the limited space would allow. The distance between each man engaged in the drill could not have been more than a foot or thereabouts when deployed, but even this was enough to give some idea of this most useful drill. Any evolutions, in double time, and even in quick time, difficult to perform on such a smooth floor as there is in Armory Hall, and it is hoped that some day the companies will be out of debt and own the armory so that they will not be under the necessity of renting it for other purposes. The floor could then be so arranged that firm footing could be had while doing the drill. The deployment to the front and by the right and left flanks were promptly executed, also the assemblies, fringes, volleys, etc. The bugle calls, while agreeable to the ear of an old campaigner, was not of much use, as the officers had not studied the calls, and all orders had to be given to the skirmishers. Of course many mistakes were made during the drill, but not so many as were to be expected, and it is hoped that each company will endeavor to perfect itself in all the various and exciting exercises. There were five skeleton companies engaged, one acting as a reserve, and the remaining four deployed as skirmishers in command of Captains Westcock and Hall, and Lieutenants Sheehan and Safford.

The election for a Second Lieutenant of Company E was settled on the second ballot. First Sergeant H. T. Seymour carried off the coveted prize. The company has made a good selection. If Lieutenant-elect Seymour does nearly as well as First Sergeant Seymour, the company will not regret its action. There were 32 members present, and the enthusiasm was unbounded. The Board of Examiners for officers and non-commissioned officers met last evening, and will pass upon the qualifications of the new Lieutenant of E.

Captain Hall worked his boys for some time after the regular drill the other evening. He seems determined to know the inside of the skirmish drill.

Captain Stevens is making a pair of whisks, which gives him a most ferocious look. He is probably doing this to intimidate the boys.

The range in the armory gallery is in full blast, and is quite popular with the force. The range ranges north of B street are again in order, the water having receded. The staff team is having a handsome medal made with Company G's cash. Quartermaster's office of companies should be forwarded immediately to regimental headquarters for approval. Also, the $5 assessment on each company and $1 on each man, for the purchase of uniforms, for the National Guard Officers' Association.

The idea of holding an encampment in Woodland the coming summer is meeting with favor. No doubt it will be a most interesting event if the funds can be raised to defray expenses.

The election for officers of Company C, which will take place some time in January.

Captain Cook is making an effort to get one of his Gatling guns from Folsom, as he desires to keep posted on how to handle it.

It seems that there is some difficulty in getting the provisional regiment, in camp at Red Bluff, ready to start. They are not paying its share of expenses for hauling baggage, board of advance party sent to pitch tents, and other incidentals, and the First Artillery, which a month ago audited and allowed its share of such expense, has washed its hands of the affair, and will refer the entire matter to the General of the Brigade. The statement will enable the creditors of the brigade in Santa Cruz to put the claim where it properly belongs.

Torney, John Keefe, Edgar Bradley, Frank Kyne, vocal solo, "Old-Fashioned Photograph," A. Bender; examination, arithmetic; vocal solo, "The Harp," Chas. Brown; declamations, Michael Foley, Jas. Butler, Patrick Farrell; song, "King of the Bells," choir.

THE WEATHER.—Sergeant Barwick reports that the Signal Service reports at 10 o'clock last night showed that two storms are now upon the Pacific coast—one from Tatooch to Fort Canby, and one from San Diego to Keeler, as it was raining at San Diego, and at the above point, and an appreciable amount had been precipitated during yesterday evening. The weather for the California Signal stations was: Foggy at Red Bluff, clear at San Francisco, San at Sacramento, Keeler, San Luis Obispo and Los Angeles, and raining at San Diego. A foul-weather sunset was reported from San Diego to Sacramento, from Tatooch to Island to Portland and Fort Canby. The wind along the Pacific slope was from some southerly point, and generally cloudy with showers of rain prevailing in Washington Territory and northern Oregon, and Oregon, and clear in southern Oregon. The barometer was generally falling from Tatooch to San Diego.

BEAUTIFUL VIEWS.—A number of large photographic views of scenery in Shasta county have been received from Judge Dible of the State Board of Fish Commission. They show with very pleasing effect the California State salmon hatchery, recently established on Hat creek, together with other delightful scenes in the vicinity. Also the junction of Hat creek and Pit river, Pit river falls, Fall River City, Mount Burney, Burney falls and Mount Shasta. They include an admirable collection of very interesting views of the works at the hatchery, and of a section rich in its general scenery.

THE HOLIDAY SEASON.

TRADE AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY OF SACRAMENTO FOR 1885. Business Houses at Which Superior Inducements are Offered for Holiday Goods, Etc.

It has become an established fact throughout the coast that better bargains can be made with Sacramento merchants than can be with those of any other city in the State. The interior merchant no longer deals with the San Francisco wholesaler, but comes to Sacramento, where he can buy the same goods at a considerably less sum of money. This is true of the wholesale merchant, equally true of the retailer and small dealer. It is gratifying to all who desire the property of our city to notice the improvements made in the merchandising business of Sacramento yearly. The advance in this direction during the past year has been marked; very few failures have been chronicled, all the merchants are carrying heavier and more varied stocks, there is much activity and apparent prosperity all along the line. The stores and trading places throughout the city are just now filled to overflowing with holiday goods, and an extra force of clerks are kept busy waiting upon customers and turning goods into cash. In order to add those who are about to make purchases, either of holiday goods, articles of personal adornment, household furnishings and supplies in general, and in accordance with our annual custom, a list is given below of merchants of the various lines of business, and the prices of the goods offered, and satisfaction as to price. The list is found to be of advantages, as well as convincing of the excellence of the goods offered, and satisfaction as to price. The list is found to be of advantages, as well as convincing of the excellence of the goods offered, and satisfaction as to price.

Health Hints by Dr. Lewis.

I don't believe in shoulder-blades. Nature furnishes the needed braces to the shoulders in position; and when you use the artificial, these natural ones become weak for want of exercise. The best way to cure stooping shoulders is to carry the weight on the head a half-hour morning and evening. Make the weight large. There is no other simple exercise so valuable as carrying a weight on the head. A bag of sand weighing from 20 to 30 pounds is a good weight.

To cure "pimples and flesh-worms" you must purify your blood, not by swallowing patent medicines, but by living on plain, nutritious food, breathing a pure air day and night, sleeping on a mattress, exercising freely and keeping your skin open by frequent baths in soap and water. There is no other way to purify your system. Swallowing poisons won't do it. Mercurials will not. God has furnished the true physicians for this and other maladies—Dr. Sunshine, Dr. Cleanliness, Dr. Pure Air, Dr. Temperance, Dr. Exercise.

The worst is a most respectable disease. Even Mr. Spurgeon seems not to be ashamed of it. In all ages it has been regarded as the most aristocratic of maladies, even more so than delirium tremens, though I see no reason why it should be. A decent temperance will prevent them both.

For the last ten years I have given coffee to patients suffering from typhoid fever, nervous collapse, cholera, and other diseases. The results have been surprising, and now I frequently use it as a medicine in affections in which prostration of the nervous system is the dominant feature. It is much better than wine. In the case of one lady whose prostration was so great that her respiration was seriously threatened, and who, although receiving the most judicious medical treatment, was quickly and wonderfully relieved by a few spoonfuls of strong coffee without milk or sugar. In several instances it has been used with coffee and lemonade with happy results.

Eleven at Four Births.

A few days ago a neatly-dressed, fresh-looking man, about 30 years of age, applied to Harry F. Foster, the cheapest and in this place, for information as to the lowest rate of fare for herself and family to Warren, Pa.

"Myself and my eleven children," she said.

"I am an agent Foster could catch his breath he exclaimed: 'Great Scott, madam! Not all yours?'

"Eleven children?" replied the woman, evidently surprised at the agent's question and manner. "Whose would they be if not mine?"

"I don't know the name of goodness, then, how old are they?" asked the agent, dropping the presumption from his forehead.

"Well, sir," said the woman, after a short mental calculation, "three of them are 9, three of them are 7, two of them are 5, and three of them are 3 years old."

Agent Foster dropped into a chair as though some one had hit him with a club. "I have a mass for twelve. Come in again in a few days, and I'll see what can be done."

The agent in the meantime ascertained that the woman's name was Cullen, she lived at Gale's Tannery, six miles from Henderson. Her husband is a laboring man, and about three years ago went to Warren to work, and had a short time ago sent for his wife and children. The couple had been married ten years. Mrs. Cullen's statement as to the number and the age of her children was substantiated by neighbors. She had presented her husband with eleven children at four births.

Agent Foster wrote to General Passenger Agent John N. Abbott, who, in turn, sent a statement of the case. Mr. Abbott sent back instructions at once to Mrs. Cullen a half fare ticket to Warren, good for herself and eleven little ones—(Henderson, Pa.) Dispatch.

Thomas at Chickamauga.

Colonel Duffield's talk on "Chickamauga," in the war series of the Young Men's Christian Association was listened to by an audience which crowded the assembly-room to overflowing. Of Thomas' memorable stand at the battle of Chickamauga, 25,000 men, all of whom were worn and weary with the fighting of the previous forty-eight hours, with both of his flanks exposed, he held the whole rebel army of more than 65,000 men, more than half of them fresh and unfought, sweeping in a circle toward him with a line of steel, as the scythe sweeps round upon the fated grass. Stouter hearts than even his own have never quailed at such a sight. Defeat, nay, annihilation, seemed inevitable. But there Thomas sat upon his heavy chair, calm as a statue, his hat thrown from his head by the overhanging branches in his rapid ride. His lips were pale and compressed. His square jaw was set. His heavy brow was furrowed by a frown, and his eagle eyes were contracted until they all but hid his eyes. But on either cheek a small round flush came in, and he had seen his men know him well, who had seen him in the Stone river, where the right gave way, seeing that flash knew at once that the intrepid hero of "Old Pap Thomas" had bidden defiance to the rebel hordes, and had registered the vow that they should never take that ridge, though the devil should cover more thickly than the corn hills over which we fought. Victory we dare not hope for, but we knew that as surely as the sun went down that night Thomas would hold that ridge or lie dead among the brave defenders on its crest. To look at him was to drink in courage. To see near him was to share his courage. He seemed indeed to be the very God of war.—(Detroit Free Press, November 2d.)

BEFORE SEPARATION FROM ENGLAND WAS DETERMINED UPON.

Before the 10th of April, 1775," said Jefferson, "I had never heard a whisper of a disposition to separate from the mother country." Washington said: "When I first took command of the army (July 3, 1775), I abhorred the idea of independence; but I am now fully convinced that nothing else will save us."

It is only by dwelling on such words as these that we can measure that vast educational process which brought the people of the Declaration of Independence in 1776.

The Continental Congress, in the early months of that year, had for many days been steadily drifting on toward the declaration of separate sovereignty, and has declared it irrevocable with reason and a good conscience for the colonists to take the oath required for the support of the government under the new constitution of Great Britain. But it was not till the 7th of June that Richard Henry Lee, of Virginia, rose and read these resolutions: "That these colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that the United Colonies by these resolutions, do, in the name of the Continental Congress, declare that they are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved;
